During the past couple of months all our lives have been turned upside down. The Covid-19 pandemic has changed the way we live significantly and maybe permanently.

The Union has been trying to provide our members with as much information on this virus as possible so that you are informed of your rights and how to survive this crisis.

For the most part our members are essential employees , whether it is literally on the front lines in a hospital or keeping the economy running by working on an armored truck and protecting assets in what is mostly empty buildings, our members are there.

While all of this is going on, we continue to fight for those that are not treated fairly.

I want to take this opportunity to just say THANK YOU to all of our members for the efforts that your are making to continue to do your job in the face of what is certainly difficult and stressful times.
